

Teach in a Classroom Without Walls!

Become an Orientation & Mobility Specialist

Help people who are blind or visually impaired learn to travel independently

- Masters & Credential
- Full-time & Part-time
- Online & Hybrid Courses
- Stipends & Scholarships AVAILABLE!

GRADUATE COLLEGE of EDUCATION

1600 Holloway Avenue
San Francisco, CA 94132

Orientation and Mobility (O&M) Specialists teach children and adults who have visual impairments how to navigate and travel safely and efficiently at home, school, work and in the community.

Join an Expanding Field

- Excellent employment opportunities in a critical shortage field
- 100% employment rate for program graduates
- Be at the forefront of latest technological advances

Work in a Wide Range of Settings

- Public schools
- Residential schools for students with visual impairments
- State or private rehabilitation centers
- Veterans Administration rehabilitation centers
- Independent contracting

Enjoy a Variety of Students

- Newborns to adults of all ages
- Those with some usable vision or total blindness
- Work one-on-one with students

Teach a Variety of Skills

- Basic movement and concepts
- Use of sensory information
- Independent travel skills including the use of a long cane and/or low vision aids
- Use of technology such as specialized GPS systems and environmental sensors
- Use of tactile and auditory maps
- Orientation to new environments
- Use of public transportation

For more information, contact:

Orientation & Mobility Program

Department of Special Education, San Francisco State University

Website: mobility.sfsu.edu

415-338-1245 mobility@sfsu.edu

